Secretary's Report

CONTENTS AND SECTIONS OF STATE

ts and the procedures for their protection; Part 3 dealing with etectors, the custody of finds etc and the controversial Part 2	Page No
sing the new concept of Areas of Archaeological importance, areas
Secretary's Report	\perp .
R.C.A.H.M. (Wales) Report
Clwyd-Powys Archaeological Trust Report
Dyfed Archaeological Trust Report	1
Glamorgan-Gwent Archaeological Trust Report	9
Prehistory	olafosb Ten 11
Roman Roman Roman Roman	42
Early Christian and Medieval
Undated Earthwork and Miscellaneous	90
Industrial and Recent	93
Vernacular Architecture	99
by CHA 2 last year, are still far from being resolved but the ran useion has been widehed in a useful way by the involvement of the ion of Museums in Wales. In view of the inadequate storage facil museums in the Principality it looks as if a final solution will g excavation records for microfiche by the Welsh Office may, bowe the disadvantages of this system. Although the debate is obvious	reduce momentum and widening its range, it is by no means settled, espe
National Museum has not yet revealed its attitude and the collect	