CONTENTS

charitable status. The Group has

The Secretary of State 1	uting Archaeology in Wales is now such isotheireq edd evisoen ensumes odd dadd sections of the Welsh Office concer	in the autumn of the year following restance entrine teem dealer Page ment of a new Principal Inspector,	refere. If the Secretary's Report for ta squionut sixingongas na ed lliw	this volume were to go no further than Secretary's Report	Dectmber 1983, the Report would have a for rescue archaeology in the Principality. The Group will un-	light of important changes in the Welsh
RCAHM (Wales) Report	Office's approach to archaeology, RCAHM (wales) Report	sper Lilated during the latter part of edinom witse out at becomens one 880 of 1984. It is therefore intended to Clearly Decree Anchorological Manual Decree	conclude this Report at the date
Clwyd-Powys Archaeological Trust Repor	t of soon vilautes asist of vector 3 one press in mid-summer.
Descensh Drainet on the Drahistoria An	A response was submitted late in 1983 Research Project on the Prehistoric Ar of the Teifi Valley	attons contained in the Brown Report on of the Telli valley.	'Historic Menumente of Weles' which Monuments Soard for Wales, and also Prehistory	The Brown Report was instrumental in TICHISCOIY	the d'ormation of 'Cade: Welsh Historic Consent Applications under the	Monuments , and the Group has also com-
Roman System A Cover do A Base A	tion of aspects of the Welsh Office's med Anu et smil e fivientes out to	invocament in archaeology. Generally, ment Consent applications. Comment	taken by the Secretary of State in .
Early Christian and Medieval	attempting to improve the presentation of produced to stee which could lead received by the Ancient Monamente Undated Earthwork and Miscellaneous	behalmen and quote and thevewore 66 18 months include antiquities deal	prime duty to preserve the monuments in Vernacular Architecture	rennam a ni eroffelv rol selvicest opnorder and northern the same and 67 mg note of advice for Coroners and Industrial and Recent	69 indubbilat and notons	of early alon Intovio and to anno 69 and